

Misunderstood Man

By me 193

Misunderstood Man walks through a world where few truly understand. He moves as though in a dream, sharing real insight and Godly wisdom, yet he is often met with misunderstanding, indifference, and rejection.

He is an outcast wandering in a hostile land—a land ruled by Me, Myself, and I, where selfishness, jealousy, and greed dominate. It is a barren and unforgiving place, where material things hold more value than human connection.

But Misunderstood Man dreams of something different. He envisions a world where people take the time to help one another, to look out for each other, and to place Service Above Self—a world where the glory of God shines through acts of love and compassion.

He is a dying breed, watching a selfish society waste away and bleed, broken by its own indifference. Yet his heart yearns for a revival, for a time when we all stop and give each other what we truly need—the unconditional love of Christ Yeshua, the only One who can fully meet our needs.

It's time to wake from this barren dream and live out the love we are called to. Let us abide in Him, the True Vine, and love one another as He has loved us.

Amen.

John 15:1-17

John 15:18-25 The World Hates the Disciples

¹⁸ “If the world hates you, keep in mind that it hated Me first. ¹⁹ If you belonged to the world, it would love you as its own. As it is, you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world. That is why the world hates you. ²⁰ Remember what I told you: ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’^[a] If they persecuted Me, they will persecute you also. If they obeyed My teaching, they will obey yours also. ²¹ They will treat you this way because of My name, for they do not know the One Who sent Me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. ²³ Whoever hates Me hates My Father as well. ²⁴ If I had not done among them the works no one else did, they would not be guilty of sin. As it is, they have seen, and yet they have hated both Me and My Father. ²⁵ But this is to fulfill what is written in their Law: ‘They hated Me without reason.’^[b]

