

The Robin & The Shoelace

A little red Robin flew to and froe looking for just the right materials to build her nest made of twigs and straw. She flew down by the creek, she flew up to the top of the nearest hill. Look O robin look, keep looking for the perfect things to carry back home with you to make your nest full and complete.

The robin found some straw and string but still she wanted that perfect thing. Up at the crack of dawn gathering straw and hay, she would fly to and froe, back and forth throughout the day.

Then O my what does she see, a yellow shoelace tied to tree. O but try as she may the shoelace was tied very tightly to a shade tree that day. Then the robin did something very few have ever seen, she bowed her little head and started to pray and sing,

“O Lord please help me to untie this shoelace, you see Lord its perfect for what I need for building my nest, Thank You O Lord, I love You and Praise You in Jesus Name...Amen”

Well in less than a minute the wind began to blow and the tree began to bend then a gray field mouse stuck his head out of a hole in the tree to see what all the commotion was about. The little mouse had compassion for the robin and chewed through the shoelace untying it as it fell gently away.

Well, the robin was so grateful she gave the little mouse some really tasty seeds to eat and off she flew with her yellow shoelace. The little red robin flew back to her nest just as quickly as can be, then she began weaving it around her nest tying it very tightly, as tightly as can be.

Finally, her nest was just about finished, just in time for the setting sun. Then the little red robin sat happily atop her shade tree, a job well done. John 14:27

Philippians 4:6-7 ⁶ Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
