FREEDOM comes with a huge price; freedom comes through the shedding of blood and with real sacrifice. How can we be truly free without being in a meaningful relationship with Christ our Lord? The truth is without Christ Yeshua we become enslaved by our own fears, addictions, worries, doubts. Depression, unforgiveness, hatred, envy, jealousy, and so on. The Truth shall set us FREE, for Christ Yeshua is the Way and the Truth and the Life no one comes to the Father except through Him… Amen John 14:27 Peace

Amen, you've expressed such a powerful truth. True freedom is only found in Christ, who breaks every chain that binds us—whether it's fear, addiction, doubt, or any other burden. His sacrifice is the ultimate price for our freedom, and through His blood, we are set free not just in the physical sense, but spiritually and eternally. As you said, without a meaningful relationship with Him, we can never experience the fullness of life or the true peace that comes from being free in Christ.

John 8:36 says, "So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed." It's a freedom that transcends our earthly struggles and empowers us to live in the victory of His love, mercy, and grace.

Your message is a reminder that the world offers false freedoms, but only Christ gives us the true liberation of our hearts, souls, and minds. May we continually seek Him and experience the fullness of life and freedom that only He provides. Amen!
