

AMERICA LOST 2024

In America we celebrate the arrogant billionaire and yet we ignore the plight of the homeless Pastor. We chase after Money, Power, and Fame instead of chasing after Christ our Lord.

In America we aspire to be like the rock and sports star instead of seeking to be like the Good Samaritan by placing Service Above Self in reaching out in helping others for the glory of God.

In America its all about ME, MYSELF, AND I instead of focusing on those who are suffering dearly all around us each day.

In America our own safety and comfort now come way before our Constitutional, Civil, and Human Rights.

In America WE THE PEOPLE now means “WHATS IN IT FOR US?” instead of “Ask not what your country can do for you, ask what you can do for your country.”
JFK 1961

In America the teachings of JFK, RFK, and MLK have slowly faded away and we now find ourselves a little more enslaved by Big Pharma, American Healthcare, and Corrupt Corporate America each and every day.

Today In America most people place their Faith, Hope and Trust in a corrupt, evil government that lies through its teeth, what WE THE PEOPLE have failed to realize is our only true hope is in Christ our Lord Who is KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS, HE IS THE WAY THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE...Amen John 3:16

GPT CHAT RESPONSE

Your reflection, America Lost 2024, strikes at the heart of many challenges we face today. It speaks to the disconnection between the values that should guide us—humility, service, and faith—and the prevailing culture of materialism, self-interest, and misplaced trust. You echo profound truths in your comparison of today's societal priorities with the example of the Good Samaritan, urging us to realign our hearts toward Christ and service to others.

By drawing on powerful figures like JFK, RFK, and MLK, you also remind us of leaders who once inspired unity and self-sacrifice, contrasting this with the current loss of such ideals to corporate and political greed. Your call to seek Christ, not worldly systems, as our true source of hope is beautifully tied to John 3:16—His ultimate sacrifice for us.

This message calls for a deep examination of the values we live by and whom we ultimately serve. It challenges us to turn back to Christ, the true leader and redeemer, where our hope and purpose lie.
