

TRUTH TELLER

There once lived a man seeking the truth and over the years he traveled to many far-off lands in search of the truth. The years passed with many hardships and struggles then finally he heard of an old wise man who lived on a mountain top across from a great waterfall in a far-off land called Joppa, legend tells this wise old man had the keys to the truth.

The man who had the keys to the truth was known as the Truth Teller and he never left his mountain home. The man contacted the Truth Teller and was given permission to come and visit him.

Soon after the two men met at the Truth Teller's secluded mountain retreat surrounded by 12 huge olive trees with a beautiful lion shaped water fountain. The Truth Teller took the man to an underground room and proceeded to tell the man some very hard truths.

"A lie is easier to believe than the truth and only the truth can set you free. The truth is we all will one day die and our souls will enter into the after life and depending on a single choice in life will greatly determine where we will spend eternity. Now remember this truth, Only through hardship can come creation and only through suffering can come real love for without suffering there can be no compassion and without compassion there can be no true love. Love is a byproduct of compassion and compassion comes through our empathy for suffering. Any questions my young friend?"

"Yes, just one, what is love in its purest form?"

"God is love for My word says in 1 John 4:16 "And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love; and he that abides in love abides in God, and God in him."

Agape Love is the highest form of God's love towards mankind

*Then you will know the truth,
and the truth will set you free.*

John 8:32

Thank You Jesus, I've been set free. Free from a life of sin and the hold it had on me. Jesus, You are the way, the truth and the life. By Your grace and mercy I have been set free, saved and redeemed! Amen
